This was the first time my company got a factory and it needed extensive renovation works.

After shopping around for some contractors, YWM Pte Ltd was the most cost competitive and his wealth of information and expertise from the years of being in this sector really shows during the renovation process.

YWM Pte Ltd was working alongside 12 sub-contractors at a time and coordinating all of them at once seamlessly without any mishap as well as getting everything done on schedule was a feat in itself.

I highly recommend using YWM Pte Ltd for any renovation works needed.
